

Would your company react appropriately to manage the crisis, safeguard employees and avoid liability?

The University of Illinois at Chicago
School of Public Health

and

Jenner & Block
The Environmental, Energy and Natural Resources Law Practice

present

Two complimentary half-day
seminars in Chicago:

On February 5, 2002

Master the Disaster

8 A.M. - Noon

and

On March 5, 2002

Prevent the Event

8 A.M. - Noon

Master the Disaster
Prevent the Event
Jenner & Block, LLC
One IBM Plaza
Chicago, Illinois 60611-7603

Are you prepared to successfully manage a:

→ Crisis?

→ Disaster?

→ Emergency?

Could this happen to your company?

- ▶ Community Exposure to Contaminants
- ▶ Explosion or Fire
- ▶ Tornado, Flood, Natural Catastrophe
- ▶ Employee Exposure to Biological Agents
- ▶ Chemical Release
- ▶ Pipeline Disruption
- ▶ Tank Rupture
- ▶ Deliberate Attack
- ▶ Resulting Civil or Criminal Litigation

Speakers to include:

Tom Van Nuys

Crisis Manager/Supervisor of Domestic Terrorism
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Mike Chamness

Director of Illinois Emergency Management System

Jay Reardon

Chief of Northbrook Fire Department and President of Mutual Aid Box Alarm System (MABAS)

Dr. Leon Gussow

Occupational Health Service Institute, Great Lakes Centers,
University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health

Dr. Daniel Hryhorczuk

Director of Great Lakes Center for Occupational and Environmental Safety and Health, University of Illinois at Chicago
School of Public Health

And from the Environmental, Energy and Natural Resources Law
Practice of Jenner & Block:

James Vroman

Bill S. Forcade

Gabrielle Sigel

Jennifer Burke

Steven M. Siros

Who should attend:

- ▶ Chief Executive Officers/Chief Operating Officers
- ▶ Business Unit Presidents
- ▶ General Counsels
- ▶ Chief Financial Officers
- ▶ Environmental Health & Safety Officers
- ▶ Plant/Facility Managers
- ▶ Executives of Financial/Lending Institutions
- ▶ Insurance Company Executives
- ▶ Building Owners and Managers

What will you learn:

- ✓ How to prepare your company to respond to an emergency
- ✓ Actions you must take during the crisis
- ✓ Types of events you are required to report
- ✓ How to communicate with:
 - employees*
 - community*
 - news media*
 - local health agencies*
 - insurance companies*
- ✓ What to report to whom and when
- ✓ Information local health agencies need from you
- ✓ What to do in the first 20 days after the disaster
- ✓ What government agencies expect from you
- ✓ What is covered and not covered by insurance
- ✓ Lender liability and risks
- ✓ Impact and analysis of risks in mergers & acquisitions
- ✓ How to minimize your liability after the disaster

How to enroll:

Yes, I will attend

Master the Disaster
February 5, 2002

Prevent the Event
March 5, 2002

Please send my confirmation to:

Name _____

Title _____

Company _____

Phone _____

Fax _____

Email _____

Please fill out this form and return by fax or mail to:

Mr. James A. Vroman, Co-Chair

Environmental, Energy & Natural Resources Law Practice
Jenner & Block
1 IBM Plaza
Chicago IL 60611-7603
Fax: 312 840-7236
Email: environment@jenner.com or register online at:

www.jenner.com/practice/enviro/environ.html

Registrants will not be charged for attending either or both seminars. Costs are borne entirely by the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health and Jenner & Block. The seminars will be held at Jenner & Block, 1 IBM Plaza, Chicago IL or, if attendance exceeds capacity, at a nearby location. All registrants will be notified via email.