CRISIS MANAGEMENT & GOVERNMENT OVERSIGHT

Jenner & Block

■ What was the biggest challenge you faced in the past year and how did you adjust to it? At an increasing rate, clients are facing inquiries stemming from the same nucleus of facts in multiple venues at once: Congress is demanding documents or testimony despite ongoing state or federal investigations, while civil litigation looms. This fast-moving landscape

Emily Loeb, Partner, Chair of Congressional Investigations Practice, Co-Chair of the Government Controversies and Public Policy Litigation Practice

presents a significant challenge for companies and practitioners. Our team's varied experience positions us to help clients navigate this new climate.

CRISIS MANAGEMENT & GOVERNMENT OVERSIGHT

■ What is a significant case you have handled in the past year and how did it stand out? Our team prepared Albertsons CEO Vivek Sankaran for testimony before the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Competition Policy, Antitrust, and Consumer Rights on November 29, 2022, following the announcement of the proposed merger with Kroger. The deal is valued at $24.6 billion.

■ What makes your firm stand out in this practice area? Our team has a unique blend of experience—as congressional staff, as government lawyers, and in private practice—responding to some of the most high-profile congressional investigations and hearings in recent memory. This experience allows us to see around corners to devise a holistic strategy to help clients be as effective as possible in advancing their overall goals. ■
