Scene Setting

The backdrop for global businesses is:

- Geopolitical volatility
- Converging crises, eg supply chain fragility, climate change, technological acceleration, trade wars, conflict
- Legal, regulatory, political & cultural divergence

Government
Enforcement Priorities:
The State of Play in the United States and Europe

JENNER & BLOCK

Enforcement Takeaways

Conduct a global regulatory exposure assessment

US laws remain in force, notwithstanding pause on enforcement

NB Other international extra-territorial anti-corruption laws

NB Other compliance risks, e.g. anti-trust, data, ESG and more

Continue to embed compliance culture

Deep Dive: ESG and DEI

ESG and DEI: The state of play in the United States and Europe

Corporate Toolkit: Navigating ESG and DEI

Conduct DEI audit and compliance assessment

- Seek jurisdiction specific advice.
- Consider local adaptations.

Balance legal, commercial, political and reputational risks of different options – no one size fits all solution for all companies.

Consider stakeholder communication

Commonalities

- Choice of language to talk about DEI.
- Importance of communicating with stakeholders

Deep Dive: The Rise in Global Hearings

JENNER & BLOCK

Corporate Toolkit: Navigating ESG and DEI

Develop a global strategy

Assemble a cross-disciplinary team

Prepare witnesses for hearings

Treat this as a BAU risk which your organization monitors and prepares for
