

Annie Kastanek Appointed to Seventh Circuit Advisory Committee on Circuit Rules

Recognition

January 26, 2026

We are pleased to share that Partner Annie Kastanek has been appointed to the Advisory Committee on Circuit Rules of the Seventh Circuit for a three-year term. The Court appoints distinguished legal professionals from across the circuit who have demonstrated a commitment to the Seventh Circuit to serve as a conduit between the bench and bar in continuing to study court procedures and recommending amendments to Circuit Rules. The appointment reflects Annie's decades of practice before that court.

As Co-Chair of the Jenner & Block's Appellate and Supreme Court practice, and in her prior position as a federal prosecutor, Annie has argued before that court more than 45 times, leveraging her vast experience and award-winning writing skills to successfully represent clients in high-stakes matters.
