

Partner Lauren Hartz Named Among Next Generation of Leaders by Corporate Counsel

Recognition

February 20, 2026

Partner Lauren Hartz has been recognized as a recipient of Corporate Counsel's 2026 Women, Influence & Power in Law Award (WIPL) in the Next Generation of Leaders category. The award recognizes women lawyers under age 40 who have made meaningful contributions to the profession, their clients, and community around them.

Lauren is a Co-Chair of Jenner & Block's Education Practice—ranked Band 1 nationwide by Chambers—and a founding Co-Chair of the firm's novel Organizational Values and Strategy Task Force. A skilled litigator, Lauren has experience at all stages of litigation and arbitration and has defended wins before the federal courts of appeals and the US Supreme Court. She helps colleges and universities solve their most complex challenges. An active member of the National Association of College and University Attorneys, Lauren has navigated high-profile campus disputes, conducted sensitive investigations, and defended lawsuits over free speech, sexual misconduct, antitrust, and more. With particular experience handling class action matters, Lauren has achieved victories for institutions in the Ivy League, Big Ten, Big 12, and ACC.
