Publications

March 4, 2026

By: Andrew W. Vail, Chris Blythe, Savannah E.B. McNeily, Elizabeth Powers, Jalyn Slaughter

Illinois civil litigation demands precision. From the first filing to the final appeal, practitioners must navigate a complex and ever-changing web of case law, rules, deadlines, and procedures. For 15 years, Jenner & Block's Illinois Civil Practice Guide has been the resource practitioners turn to when precision matters most.

The 2026 edition provides comprehensive guidance on Illinois civil rules and procedures, reflecting the latest Illinois Supreme Court rule changes and case developments. It features expanded guidance on the use of AI in Illinois courts following the ARDC's October 2025 release of The Illinois Attorney's Guide to Implementing AI, added new exemptions to Rule 9's e-filing requirement and new relief from clerk filing rejections, and a new section on attorney fee petitions under Rule 300.

The publication is co-authored by Partner Andrew Vail and Associates Christopher Blythe, Savannah McNeily, Elizabeth Powers, Zoë Reinstein, and Jalyn Slaughter.
