Overview

Michael Barron has a broad corporate and commercial practice, with clients on shareholder disputes and on claims relating to sale and purchase agreements. He has experience across a number of sectors, including financial services, leisure and retail, energy, oil and gas, sport, and transport and infrastructure.

Michael advises a range of clients across a variety of sectors, including start-ups, multinational corporations, private capital funds and high-net-worth individuals. His work includes guiding clients through High Court litigation, arbitration proceedings (across all of the major centres) and settlement discussions. He has an international practice with a global client base, and has advised on cross-border proceedings and as strategic advisor to clients facing problems in unfamiliar jurisdictions.
