

Partner Michael Vernick to Speak at NCURA's 2026 Financial Research Administration/Pre-Award Research Administration Conference

News

March 20, 2026

On March 23, Partner Michael Vernick will speak on a panel at the 2026 Financial Research Administration/Pre-Award Research Administration Conference, hosted by the National Council of University Research Administrators (NCURA).

The session, titled "Blurring Lines: The Intersection of Research Misconduct and Research Fraud," focus on proactive measures that institutions and research leaders can implement to mitigate emerging challenges anticipated in 2026 and beyond. The discussion will address vulnerabilities throughout the sponsored research lifecycle, highlighting opportunities to reinforce scientific integrity and foster a culture of ethical compliance.

Ranked in the Higher Education category by Chambers USA, Michael is a leading authority on legal frameworks governing federal research funding and False Claims Act (FCA) enforcement, and a dedicated advisor to universities, research institutions, and academic medical centers.
