As Co-Chair of the firm's National Security & Crisis and Human Rights & Global Strategy practices and former Chief Counsel of OFAC at the US Treasury Department, Rachel Alpert is a recognized authority on sanctions, export controls, and international trade compliance. She advises companies navigating the most complex sanctions and trade compliance challenges reshaping global business today.

Rebekah Goodheart is an accomplished telecom attorney with more than 25 years of experience in government leadership and private practice. As Co-Chair of Jenner & Block's Communications, Internet, and Technology Practice as well as Law360 Telecommunications MVP for 2021, she provides practical insights from the perspective of both a regulator and a corporate advisor.

Ranked consecutively by Chambers and recognized as a Law360 Rising Star in Energy, Niqui Kohli is a respected voice in the field. He is a practitioner deeply embedded in live, market-moving transactions who can identify emerging regulatory flashpoints, novel deal structures, and shifts in FERC and state PUC policy.

Megan Poetzel serves as Co-Chair of Jenner & Block's Pro Bono Committee and has a proven track record of securing life-changing outcomes for underserved clients. She leads complex pro bono immigration and civil rights cases at the firm and is a long-serving board member of Legal Aid Chicago.

Ranked continuously by Chambers as a Leading Individual, Laurel Loomis Rimon is widely recognized for her substantive knowledge and effectiveness as a lawyer. As Co-Chair of the firm's Fintech and Crypto Assets Practice and founder of the Payment Practice, she stands out for her regulatory experience, the depth of her commentary and the impact of her counsel.

Melissa Root is the Managing Partner of the firm's Chicago office and Co-Chair of its Bankruptcy and Restructuring Practice, earning Chambers rankings in Bankruptcy/Restructuring for eight consecutive years, recognition in The Best Lawyers in America, and Illinois Super Lawyers honors. She is a role model for civic leadership in Illinois, serving as Outside General Counsel to the Millennium Park Foundation and on the boards of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Negaunee Music Institute, and Cabrini Green Legal Aid.

As Co-Chair of firm's Content, Media, and Entertainment, Antitrust and Competition Law, and Technology Practices, David Singer stands at the forefront of the most consequential legal developments reshaping media and entertainment. As an industry-leading litigator and advisor, he continues to represent studios, television networks, streaming services, newspapers, videogame and other tech companies in precedent-setting cases.
