By: Rob Dalling

London Partner Rob Dalling has authored the Contributed Article of the Week in Edward Fennell’s Legal Diary, examining the UK Government’s recent announcement that armed forces and law enforcement may intercept vessels forming part of Russia’s so-called ‘shadow fleet’ in UK waters.

Rob examines the UK’s sanctions enforcement activity against Russian oil vessels, the maritime law questions the announcement raises, and the contrast with the US’s temporary relaxation of restrictions on Russian crude oil under OFAC General License 134.
