

“Driving Global Integrity: Embedding Anti-Corruption Leadership and Accountability Across Multinational Operations,” C5’s London Forum

Event

April 22, 2026

Speakers: Lucy Blake

Lucy Blake, Partner at Jenner & Block, moderated a panel discussion on driving global integrity at C5's London Forum on Global Anti-Corruption, Compliance & Risk Management.

The panel, which brought together Antonio Francesco Abbadessa, Chief Compliance Officer at FiberCop, and Gabor Sulyok, Global Head of Commercial and Healthcare Compliance at BioNTech, explored how compliance leaders can embed anti-corruption leadership and accountability into organisational culture, ensuring consistent standards across diverse jurisdictions - from establishing ethical leadership across global operations, to integrating anti-bribery and anti-corruption standards into governance frameworks and business processes, to aligning corporate integrity principles with regional regulatory realities, and deploying tools to measure long-term anti-corruption resilience.

The forum brought together senior government officials, corporate compliance executives, and legal leaders to share practical, real-world insight on shaping best-in-class compliance programmes across the globe.
