

Partner Andrew Vail Speaks at Chicago Bar Association Abroad Program in Athens, Greece

Event

April 29, 2026

Partner Andrew Vail recently spoke on a panel at the Chicago Bar Association's CLE Abroad program in Athens, Greece on April 29.

The discussion examined the rule of law, judicial independence, and public trust in democratic institutions, bringing together legal practitioners for a conversation on the challenges facing legal systems globally.

Andrew is co-chair of three Jenner & Block practice groups: Specialized Litigation and Arbitration, Real Estate and Hospitality, and Trade Secret and Restrictive Covenants. He helps clients navigate high-stakes disputes where the stakes extend far beyond the courtroom—guiding them through complex matters where regulatory, contractual, reputational, and business concerns intersect.
