

Partner Rebekah Goodheart to Speak on Broadband and Currency Law at Practising Law Institute

News

May 11, 2026

Partner Rebekah Goodheart, Co-Chair of the firm's Communications, Internet, and Technology Practice will co-chair the Practising Law Institute's conference "Broadband and Cable Industry Law 2026" on May 12, 2026. Rebekah will discuss legislative and regulatory developments in the telecommunications industry and explore the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) efforts to hasten the transition to all Internet Protocol (IP) next-generation communications networks.

The PLI Conference will include outside and in-house counsel as well as current government officials as they explore FCC initiatives, pole attachment law and permitting disputes, Artificial Intelligence use cases, privacy and compliance issues, and the rollout of BEAD and other government funding programs.
