Jenner & Block's Japan Practice has been recognized as one of five finalists for the Asian Legal Business (ALB) 2026 Japan Law Awards in the category of Japan Practice Foreign Law Firm of the Year.

The recognition honors foreign law firms without physical offices in Japan that have demonstrated exceptional legal service and substantial work involving Japanese elements, among law firms all over the world (not just those in the US).

Led by Partners Miwa Shoda, Brent Caslin, and Don Batterson, Jenner & Block's Japan Practice has built a 40-year legacy of excellence supporting Japanese companies in a variety of legal matters. The team has a deep understanding of both the US and Japan legal systems, business culture in both countries, dual qualification in both US and Japanese jurisdictions, and native Japanese and English language capabilities, creating strategic advantages for Japanese clients navigating complex cross-border matters.
