The panel will discuss practical approaches to identifying and managing corruption, human rights, and other third-party risks through due diligence, contracting, and monitoring. Participants will leave equipped to implement risk-based controls, design mitigation strategies, and address common breakdowns in third-party risk management.

Rachel guides multinational companies and institutions through the complex landscape of US sanctions, export controls, and national security regulations. Drawing on her experience as Chief Counsel at the US Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), Rachel helps clients understand not only what the law requires, but how policy is shaped and implemented across government.
