

Partner Emily Loeb Quoted in Semafor on Corporate Risk Ahead of Midterm Elections

Publications

June 9, 2026

Partner Emily Loeb was quoted in Semafor in an article examining how House Democrats plan to leverage a potential midterm election majority to pursue oversight investigations into corporations with ties to the Trump administration.

In the piece, Emily — who co-chairs Jenner & Block's Congressional Investigations Practice — offered perspective on the stakes for companies that could face heightened scrutiny following the midterms: "While we often see congressional oversight of particular industries by one party or the other, we haven't seen that same type of industry-wide impact to date. That said, congressional investigations can often feel intensely personal, and there can be lasting damage coming out of it."
