

Jenner & Block Named to Public Interest Law Initiative's 2026 Pro Bono Recognition Roster

Recognition

June 25, 2026

For the 16th year, Jenner & Block has been recognized in Public Interest Law Initiative's Pro Bono Recognition Roster (PILI).

The Pro Bono Recognition Roster honors law firms and corporations that have made significant commitments and contributions to pro bono throughout the state of Illinois.

This year, Jenner lawyers provided over 230 hours of legal counsel to help the Civic Committee of the Commercial Club of Chicago structure public safety initiatives—from community violence intervention programs to new digital forensic training infrastructure—strengthening the city's capacity to protect its residents for years to come.

The firm also secured a last-minute reversal of an eligibility ruling that had barred a Chicago high school wrestler from competing in his senior season, ultimately allowing him to reach the state championship finals.
