

Partner John Storino Named President of the Chicago Inn of Court

Recognition

August 6, 2026

Chicago Partner John Storino, Co-Chair of Jenner & Block's Law Firm and Professional Services Defense Practice, has been named President of the Chicago Inn of Court.

Established in 1988, the Chicago Inn of Court remains one of the most active chapters of the American Inns of Court, dedicated to inspiring the legal community to advance the rule of law by achieving the highest level of professionalism through example, education, and mentoring.

John has long been active in the Inn, consistent with a practice centered on the profession's ethical standards. He has served on the Illinois Supreme Court's Character and Fitness Committee for 12 years and currently sits on US Soccer's Independent Ethics Committee.

John represents lawyers and law firms facing legal malpractice, breach of fiduciary duty, and related claims, and represents individual attorneys in disciplinary and regulatory matters.
