Partner Ashley Callen, Co-Chair of the firm's Congressional Investigations Practice, has been named a Fall 2026 Fellow at the Georgetown University Institute of Politics and Public Service at the McCourt School of Public Policy.

The fellowship brings political practitioners, public servants, and journalists to campus each semester to work directly with students through weekly discussion groups, office hours, and student strategy teams.

Before joining Jenner, Ashley served as General Counsel to Speaker Mike Johnson (R-LA) and as General Counsel to Majority Leader Steve Scalise (R-LA). She held senior investigative and leadership positions across several key House committees—including as Deputy Staff Director for the Oversight and Government Reform Committee under Ranking Member James Comer (R-KY); as Chief Oversight Counsel to the House Judiciary Committee under Ranking Member Doug Collins (R-GA); and as General Counsel and Oversight Subcommittee Staff Director at the Science, Space, and Technology Committee, and Deputy Chief Counsel for Oversight at the Agriculture Committee under Chairmen Lamar Smith (R-TX) and Mike Conaway (R-TX), respectively. She was also the lead Republican staffer on the Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Crisis working closely with then-Republican Whip Steve Scalise's team.
