Overview

Jas Singh is a member of Jenner & Block's Litigation Practice.

As a summer associate at Jenner, Jas conducted legal research and drafted memoranda on a variety of topics, including transnational litigation. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Anita B. Brody of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Jas received a JD from New York University School of Law, where she was a senior articles editor of the New York University Journal of International Law and Politics (JILP). During law school, she interned at the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) in The Hague, where she worked on international arbitration proceedings. Before attending law school, Jas was a paralegal at a boutique litigation firm focused on white-collar criminal defense, criminal tax matters, and government investigations.
