Overview

Caroline Hunsicker draws on her experience with consumer class actions and in matters involving civil rights and constitutional claims. As a law fellow at a boutique firm, Caroline drafted dispositive motions and class certification briefings, prepared expert witnesses, and defended and second-chaired depositions.

Prior to joining Jenner, Caroline clerked for the Honorable Trina L. Thompson of the US District Court for the Northern District of California. She received her JD from Stanford Law School, where she was an editor of the Stanford Law Review (SLR) and Stanford Law & Policy Review (SLPR), coordinator of the Housing Pro Bono Program, and served in the Immigrants' Rights Clinic. Before law school, Caroline served as a Senior Policy Advisor to US Senator Tina Smith, drafting legislation on federal housing programs and public transit.

Caroline earned her bachelor's degree in history from Harvard University.
