Established in 1991, the Pope & John Lecture Series is a longstanding annual forum on professionalism. Each year, the law school selects a lecturer who exemplifies the Tenets of Professionalism to address topics including legal ethics, public service, civility, pro bono representation, and standards of conduct.

Terri is co-chair of the Jenner & Block's Litigation Department and Education Practice. She has tried more than three dozen cases and arbitrations across the United States and is a past president of the Chicago Bar Association and a Fellow and Regent of the American College of Trial Lawyers.
