The article, “Fintechs Prepare For Blue Wave’s Flood Of Investigations,” looks at where incoming committee leadership may focus its attention, the growing role of state attorneys general, and the steps companies are taking now to be ready for investigative requests.

Jon, who previously served as counsel to Republican lawmakers on oversight and investigations, discusses how committee jurisdiction may shape inquiries into the industry and how companies are getting ahead of potential requests. Kayvan, who Co-Chairs the firm’s Fintech and Crypto Assets Practice, addresses how the industry is likely to approach agency rulemaking in the absence of new legislation.
