The conference brings together government enforcement officials, in-house compliance leaders, and lawyers to examine where enforcement is heading in 2027. Sessions will cover the first year of the US Department of Justice (DOJ) Corporate Enforcement Policy, voluntary self-disclosure decisions, corruption risks tied to cartels and transnational criminal organizations, and cross-border coordination with enforcement authorities in the United Kingdom, France, and Switzerland. As co-chair, Glenn will deliver opening remarks and help introduce sessions throughout the program.

Glenn joined the firm's Investigations, Compliance, and Defense Practice in January after serving as Chief of the Fraud Section in DOJ's Criminal Division, where he oversaw corporate criminal investigations, including Foreign Corrupt Practices Act enforcement. He previously served as Senior Vice President and Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer at Hewlett Packard Enterprise.
