Partner Lindsay Harrison Named a 2026 Law360 Real Estate MVP

Recognition

November 18, 2026

Law360 named Lindsay Harrison, Co-Chair of the firm's Real Estate and Hospitality Practice, a 2026 MVP in the Real Estate category. The honor recognizes lawyers who stand out from their peers through significant achievements in high-stakes litigation, complex global matters, and record-setting transactions.

The profile highlights Lindsay's work for real estate and hospitality clients, including her representation of multifamily property manager Greystar Real Estate Partners LLC in its settlement with the Federal Trade Commission and Colorado over hidden fees allegations, and of Hyatt Corp. in a matter involving allegations over undisclosed customer fees.

In the profile, Lindsay discusses reaching resolutions that move entire industries forward, helping clients pursue their business goals in a divided political and regulatory climate, and what draws her to work centered on housing and hospitality.

As Co-Chair of Jenner's Real Estate and Hospitality litigation practice, Lindsay is a strategic and versatile litigator. She has tried dozens of cases and arbitrations, argued and won in the US Supreme Court and federal courts of appeals, and regularly leads highly complex litigation and regulatory matters. Chambers ranks her in General Commercial Litigation and Leisure & Hospitality.
