Overview

Joshua Davids advises clients with mergers and acquisitions and general corporate matters across various industries, including aerospace and defense. He plays a key role in drafting purchase agreements and managing the closing process in major transactions. Joshua represents public and privately held companies in the context of domestic and cross-border transactions.

Joshua works closely with clients throughout each stage of a transaction, serving as the main point of contact as they work through structuring decisions, negotiations and preparation of deliverables. Additionally, Joshua supports clients with corporate matters outside of acquisitions, including through advising on corporate governance issues and creating joint ventures.
