Overview

Borrowers and lenders seek Brian Hart’s skill and insight when pursuing complex corporate finance matters and capital markets transactions. He draws on more than 30 years of experience in complex syndicated and bilateral credit financings, including acquisition financings, cross-border financings, first and second lien loan transactions, subordinated debt financings, and asset-based transactions.

A hands-on and collaborative partner to clients, Brian gets involved at the earliest stages of a transaction to develop practical financing and refinancing strategies that align with their business goals. Public and private corporations and private equity funds in healthcare, defense, manufacturing, telecommunications, and life sciences value his practical solutions when issues arise.

Throughout his career, Brian has represented companies in multi-million and multi-billion-dollar senior secured credit facilities involving offerings of senior and subordinated notes, convertible notes, and equity. When structuring and negotiating terms of complex financing transactions, he collaborates with the firm’s corporate treasury team to ensure a quick and efficient closing.

In complex financing and capital markets transactions, experience guides the most practical approach to getting deals done quickly and efficiently.”
