Overview

Owen Keiter advises a wide range of clients facing complex legal challenges, with a particular emphasis on the content, media and technology industries. Owen regularly appears before courts and arbitrators across the country and counsels clients in connection with commercial transactions and compliance matters.

Owen maintains a pro bono practice focused on protecting the rights of incarcerated people on appeal and in post-conviction proceedings. He also maintains an independent research agenda, resulting in work that has been published by leading law journals. Before becoming a lawyer, he spent several years in the book publishing industry.
