Overview

Practical and goal-oriented, Rob Rawn is a seasoned and skilled corporate lawyer focused on mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings and compliance, and corporate governance. As Co-Chair of Jenner’s Mergers and Acquisitions Practice, Rob advises a broad spectrum of public and private companies in domestic and cross-border mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures and other transactions. Rob’s corporate experience extends from the middle market to multi-billion-dollar deals. He has also advised clients on a multitude of venture capital investments and business combination transactions involving special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs).

Rob understands how to listen to clients and understand their goals while managing responsive and innovative legal teams. He takes particular pride in handling repeat engagements that foster long-term client relationships.

Rob has represented companies and investors in numerous industries including manufacturing, technology, media and entertainment and life sciences. Recent M&A clients include Silgan Holdings Inc., Stanley Black & Decker, Shift Technologies, Internap Holding LLC, ATI Global Limited and Leap Legal Software.
