

Partner Joseph Gromacki to be Honored by Landmarks Illinois for His Civic Leadership

Recognition

January 30, 2020

Partner Joseph P. Gromacki, chair of the firmwide Corporate Practice, will be honored at the 15th annual Legendary Landmarks Celebration on March 5, 2020. Landmarks Illinois is the only statewide historic preservation nonprofit that helps people across the state save the treasured places in their communities. Mr. Gromacki is recognized as a civic leader in Chicago, a distinguished leader in the legal and business communities, and an active patron of the arts. For example, he serves on the boards of the Arts Institute of Chicago, the Terra Foundation for American Art, the Richard H. Driehaus Museum, the Illinois Governor's Mansion Association and several other organizations. A member of the National Trust Council and Landmarks Illinois Emeritus Board, he has championed many historic preservation efforts.
