

Client Alert: "SEC Reacts to COVID-19 Crisis and Issues Relief Relevant to Public Companies and Regulated Entities"

Publications

March 16, 2020

By: Brian R. Boch, Charles D. Riely

On Friday, March 13, 2020, and over the subsequent weekend, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and its staff made announcements with guidance and/or relief for public companies and firms experiencing challenges because of the coronavirus (COVID-19). The SEC and its staff appear to have calibrated the guidance and relief to balance investors' need for information with the practical realities of an unprecedented public health event. The SEC also emphasized that it is continuing to "assess impacts relating to the coronavirus on investors and market participants, and will consider additional relief from other regulatory requirements."
