

“Navigating Enforcement Risks Associated with the Use of Alternative or Sensitive Data,” TechGC

News

April 9, 2020

In a recent blog post, TechGC highlighted a dinner that Jenner & Block hosted with TechGC in New York to discuss the use of alternative data when making consumer facing decisions. At their dinner, “Navigating Enforcement Risks Associated with the Use of Alternative or Sensitive Data,” Kali Bracey, Joe Noga, Michael Ross, Damon Smith and Kate Spelman discussed what alternative data is, why consumers should care about it, what regulators are focused on and what consumers need to know when it comes to alternative data.
