

Partner Matthew Cipolla Recognized among GIR's "40 under 40"

Recognition

April 23, 2020

Jenner & Block Partner Matthew D. Cipolla has been named among GIR's "40 under 40," which highlights "the next generation of accomplished young investigations specialists." GIR's profile of Mr. Cipolla notes his work on the monitorship of Credit Suisse, following the bank's $715 million settlement with the NY Department of Financial Service. Leading the investigative component of the monitorship, Mr. Cipolla had the opportunity to examine the bank's corporate governance failures and individual misconduct and informed the enhancements to the bank's processes for future compliance to US law.
