

Insurance Law Update, “How to Navigate a Hardening D&O Insurance Market,” Law360

Publications

October 6, 2020

In the October Insurance Law Update, Partners Brian S. Scarbrough and Caroline L. Meneau and Associate Huiyi Chen explain that the directors and officers liability insurance market has hardened since 2019. “Directors and officers of public and private companies face the potential for a variety of lawsuits related to the collateral damage and economic fallout due to the coronavirus and the pandemic response,” they observe. They then examine the risks and discuss how to mitigate them. The ILU was published by Law360.
