

Client Alert: British Airways Data Breach: What Happened to £163 Million of the Proposed Fine?

Publications

October 19, 2020

On 16 October 2020, the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) issued a Penalty Notice (the Notice) against British Airways (BA), imposing a £20 million fine in respect of BA's 2018 data breach. This is a significant fine and is substantially higher than any fines previously levied by the ICO. However, it is also significantly less than the £183 million that the ICO indicated it was planning to fine BA when it issued its notice of intent to fine in July 2019. So what happened?
