The Washington Business Journal honored Jenner & Block Partner Lindsay C. Harrison with its “Business of Pride” award, recognizing leaders who support and promote the LGBTQ communities by making a difference in the workplace. In her profile, the Journal noted Ms. Harrison’s involvement with the firm’s LGBTQ Forum affinity group, as well as her experiences working on landmark cases, such as Lawrence v. Texas, and strategizing challenges to anti-transgender legislation. She provided her perspective on the litigation she and a firm team won regarding the attempted rescission of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program, commenting on the importance of having diversity on a team and empowering junior lawyers on each case: “For me, it’s always about trying to make sure all the voices in a case are heard and trying to lift up those voices that typically get lost.”
