

“The Benefits of More Alternative Dispute Resolution at GAO,” Law360

Publications

January 12, 2021

In this article, Special Counsel Noah B. Bleicher analyzes the US Government Accountability Office’s Bid Protest Annual Report to Congress, with a focus on the use of ADR at the GAO. The author explores the types of ADR conducted by the GAO, examines how often ADR has been used throughout the years, and makes the case that ADR should be deployed more frequently to resolve bid protest matters.
