

Firm Releases 20th Edition of The Heart of the Matter, Report on Pro Bono Initiatives

News

February 12, 2021

Every year since 2001, the firm has published The Heart of the Matter. The annual report tells the triumphant stories of people and organizations who overcame challenging legal circumstances. This year's report also discusses the benefits of partnering with clients and includes a special section about how we responded to the challenges we faced in 2020. Our seven partners share a message about the firm's five-year, $250 million pro bono commitment.
