

Insurance Law Update, “Questions Following 2 Recent Cyber Insurance Developments,” Law360

Publications

March 23, 2021

In this update, Jenner & Block Partner David M. Kroeger and Associate Huiyi Chen explain that courts and state legislatures have begun to tackle insurance issues unique to cyber incidents, which have greatly increased the quantity and complexity of risks facing large companies in recent years. They highlight two recent judicial and legislative developments and observe that “there is still a long way to go before policyholders can expect more certainty and uniformity in the burgeoning territory of cyber insurance regulation and policy interpretation.” The Insurance Law Update was published by Law360.
