

“Best Practices for COVID-19 Claims,” The Procurement Lawyer

Publications

March 24, 2021

In this article, Jenner & Block Partner Cynthia J. Robertson and Law Clerk Scott E. Whitman discuss best practices for contractors to follow in pursuing COVID-19-related claims against the government. They reiterate the “golden rules” that should guide contractors’ pre-claim strategy when submitting procurement-related claims, including those for COVID-19-related costs. The authors then trace the challenges likely to arise as COVID-19-related claims trickle through the adjudication process and provide tips that contractors should follow to maximize their likelihood of obtaining relief.
