Jenner & Block's London office has built a powerful reputation for representing clients in their most significant contentious matters—often at the intersection of law, business, and politics—with serious legal, commercial, and reputational consequences.

Building on Jenner & Block's long history of excellence, our London office supports clients worldwide in the following core areas of practice: Complex Commercial Litigation; International Arbitration; Public Law and Crisis Management; Investigations, Compliance, and Defense; and Intellectual Property.

In addition, our multi-disciplinary London team includes lawyers from the firm's: Data Privacy and Cybersecurity; ESG; Human Rights and Global Strategy; Culture, Risk and Sensitive Investigations; Sanctions and Export Controls; Law Firm and Professional Services Defense; Government Controversies and Public Policy Litigation; Global Hearing Preparation; Government Contractor Litigation and Compliance; and Patent Litigation and Counseling Practices.

Combining strong technical legal skills and a focus on detail with a highly commercial approach, our team provides deep insight and experience to clients across a broad range of sectors, including contentious restructuring and insolvency, construction, energy and infrastructure, natural resources, aerospace and defense, financial services, technology, manufacturing, food and beverage, and healthcare and life sciences. We represent clients not only in the UK, but also across Europe and around the world. In particular, we have extensive experience representing clients with operations in Europe, North and South America, The Middle East, India, and Asia-Pacific.

Driven by a commitment to professional excellence and client service, our London office has expanded through strategic recruitment and by cultivating top talent from within. Our lawyers are deeply engaged in their community, with a strong tradition of pro bono work dating back to the office's inception. We are proud to partner with our clients on a wide range of pro bono activities—sharing our time, insight, experience, and values. Together as partners, we work to make a difference for every client we serve.
