

IATA Legal Symposium 2020

Event

February 7, 2020

Jenner & Block Partner Marc L Warren will introduce US Transportation Secretary Elaine Chao before her keynote address at the International Air Transport Association's Legal Symposium 2020. The symposium is a premier annual aviation law event attended by in-house counsel, private practitioners and government lawyers. The firm's aviation team, along with valued client United, are sponsoring Secretary Chao's keynote address. She speaks on February 20, the second day of the three-day event in New York. Mr. Warren is co-chair of the firm's Aviation and Aerospace Practice. He has a range of experience in matters including those involving US and foreign airlines, aerospace manufacturing, unmanned aircraft systems, commercial space transportation, airports and infrastructure, business aviation, product certification, safety management systems, hazardous materials transport, government contracts and grants, rulemaking and policy, litigation, and government investigations. Please click here to learn more and register.

Stay Informed

