

“The Blurred Future of Investment Arbitration,” International Arbitration Dialogues – New York, Hogan Lovells

Event

February 26, 2020

On February 27, Jenner & Block Partner Mélida Hodgson will join a panel that will focus on the state and future of investor-state arbitration. Topics will include the status of current reform initiatives, UNCITRAL Working Group III discussions on the establishment of an advisory centre on ISDS, and a code of conduct for decision-makers. The panel starts at 2 pm Eastern at Hogan Lovells New York, 390 Madison Avenue. Ms. Hodgson is head of the firm’s New York International Arbitration Practice and also sits as arbitrator. To learn more, click here.

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Stay Informed

