

“The Deepfake Predicament: Right of Publicity, Defamation & Other Legal Implications,” Beverly Hills Bar Association

Event

March 3, 2020

On March 5, Partner David R. Singer will join a panel of speakers to discuss the legal implications of deepfake videos. David is Co-Chair of the firm’s Content, Media and Entertainment Practice and a thought leader in cutting-edge legal areas including artificial intelligence, virtual and augmented reality, and the use of digital replicas in film and television. He recently co-authored an award-winning article for The Hollywood Reporter exploring the serious legal questions raised by deepfakes.
