

“Investigation Minefields,” NACUA 2020 Virtual Conference

Event

June 19, 2020

Jenner & Block Partner Reid J. Schar will speak at the NACUA 2020 Virtual Conference in a session titled “Investigation Minefields.” He and other panelists will discuss privilege considerations; scoping of investigation; data collection/destruction issues; effective witness interviews and contact with former employees and students; and final work product pros and cons. NACUA’s mission is to enhance legal assistance to colleges and universities by educating lawyers and administrators as to the nature of campus legal issues. The virtual conference is from June 18 to 26; Mr. Schar’s session is on June 23, 2020. Mr. Schar co-chairs the firm’s Investigations, Compliance and Defense Practice and is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He regularly advises boards of directors and board committees and appears on their behalf before regulatory bodies.

Related Attorneys

Reid Schar

Managing Partner, San Francisco
rschar@jenner.com
+1 628 267 6858

Related Capabilities

Investigations, Compliance, and Defense

Stay Informed

