

“New Playbook for 2020 vs 2008 – The CARES Bailout”

Event

July 10, 2020

On July 16, Jenner & Block Partner Neil M. Barofsky will participate in a webinar with Amy Poster, Risk and Regulatory Lead at Horizon Globex. The webinar is being co-hosted by the Regulatory Compliance Association, Assistance for All Americans, 100 Women in Finance, and the Money Services Business Association. The presenters will unpack the oversight provisions of the CARES Act, including the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP), and will share lessons learned from the 2008 Financial Crisis. The presentation will help compliance professionals navigate the current crisis by looking at oversight then and now, as well as the CARES Act oversight bodies. They will also comment on related topics like the independence of the Special Inspector General, fraud in the Small Business Association’s PPP, and what we can expect from the Congressional Oversight Commission and Pandemic Response Accountability Committee. For more information and to register for this free webcast, please click here. As head of Jenner & Block’s COVID-19 Response Team, Mr. Barofsky counsels clients on how to navigate the crisis and the government’s response to the global pandemic. He draws upon his time as the Special Inspector General of the Troubled Asset Relief Program, where he established and supervised the audit division that oversaw financial assistance provided to corporations after the 2008 financial crisis.

Related Attorneys

Neil Barofsky

Partner

+1 212 891 1600

Related Capabilities

Government Controversies and Public Policy Litigation

Stay Informed

