

“How are Airlines and Airports Restoring Confidence and Providing a Safe Environment for Travelers during the Pandemic?”

International Aviation Club

Event

July 20, 2020

Jenner & Block Partner Abby L. Bried will moderate a panel about airline and airport safety during the pandemic. Topics include the wide array of initiatives being undertaken to keep air travelers safe and what solutions already exist or are being developed to help minimize air travel health risks. The webinar will take place on July 22, 2020, from 2-3 pm Eastern. Ms. Bried is a partner in the firm’s Aviation and Aerospace Practice. For more than 20 years, she has provided insight and legal counsel on virtually all of the major issues and developments in international aviation and a broad range of domestic issues affecting the aviation, and aerospace industry including the manufacturing sector. To learn more and register, please click here.

Stay Informed

