

“A Conversation Between Brian Miller, Special Inspector General for Pandemic Recovery, and Neil Barofsky, Former Special Inspector General, Troubled Asset Relief Program,” New York City Bar Association

Event

September 24, 2020

Jenner & Block Partner Neil M Barofsky, former Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program (SIGTARP), will join Brian Miller, Special Inspector General for Pandemic Recovery (SIGPR), in a CLE webcast. As SIGTARP, Mr. Barofsky oversaw the financial assistance provided to corporations after the 2008 financial crisis. As SIGPR, Mr. Miller is charged with identifying and combating fraud and waste connected to the distribution of hundreds of billions of dollars appropriated as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act). The discussion will focus on SIGPR’s enforcement priorities, statutory role, navigation of mission overlap with other oversight entities, and challenges of building and leading a law enforcement and oversight agency during a time of crisis. The webcast will be held on October 1, 2020, from 6 pm to 7:20 pm ET. As head of Jenner & Block’s COVID-19 Response Team, Mr. Barofsky counsels clients on how to navigate the crisis and the government’s response to the global pandemic. He is a regular commentator in national print, radio, and TV media, focusing on the CARES Act and related government stimulus legislation. To learn more and register, please click here.
