

Entertainment Law, 2020 MLRC Media Law Conference

Event

September 25, 2020

On October 1, Jenner & Block Partner Alison I. Stein will present a seminar on entertainment law at the 2020 MLRC Media Law Conference. She will discuss the latest legal developments in the creation of and distribution of entertainment content, including defending idea theft and substantial similarity cases; right of publicity claims and docudramas – de Haviland, Porco and more; and legal issues of concern in television productions. The online virtual conference will take place over five days. For more information, please click here. Ms. Stein is a partner in the firm's nationally recognized Content, Media, and Entertainment Practice. Her practice focuses on intellectual property counseling and litigation, and on matters involving content protection, copyright infringement, licensing negotiations and transactions, clearance work, copyright terminations, trademark enforcement, trade secrets, unfair competition, defamation, entertainment litigation, and contractual disputes.
