

“Clean Air Act,” Environmental Law Institute 29th Annual Eastern Boot Camp

Event

October 30, 2020

On November 5, Jenner & Block Partner Allison A. Torrence will teach a class on the Clean Air Act as a faculty member of the 29th Annual Eastern Boot Camp on Environmental Law. The boot camp is a program of the Environmental Law Institute, providing courses for new and seasoned professionals that explore the substance and practice of environmental law. Ms. Torrence is a member of the firm’s Environmental and Workplace Health and Safety Law Practice as well as the Climate and Clean Technology Law Practice. She has significant experience in environmental litigation, working on cases involving toxic torts, CERCLA, RCRA, the Clean Water Act and the Clean Air Act, among other matters. To learn more and register, please click here.

Stay Informed

